

PLAYER EVALUATION FORM

FOR ASL PLAYER MOVEMENT

This evaluation form has been designed to help Technical Directors make decisions on players who wish to play down in a younger age group. Please be aware this evaluation is only valid for one (1) playing season.

The individual player wishing to play down must have a valid reason for doing so as demonstrated in the any of the 5 sections.

Identification Key: 1 = Below Average. 2 = Average. 3 = Good. 4 = Excels

Player's Name
Player's Date of Birth
Is the player playing up or down? By how many years?
Player's Academy
Academy Technical Director

Psychological/Mental			1	2	3	4
Self Confidence	Safe and positive environment	Player is willing to express themselves more. Not afraid to make mistakes
Competitiveness	Displaying desire to be successful	Player displays the desire to be successful in practice activities and small-sided games
Concentration	An ability to stay on task	Player shows a good attention span and has the ability to stay on task for longer periods
Commitment	Apply themselves at practice and completing activities	Player is happily attending the majority of practices and games. Shows ability to complete activities and exercises during practice
Determination	Displays a determination to complete tasks	Does to not give up easily, displays a determination to complete tasks
Physical			1	2	3	4
Agility	Moving in quick controlled, movements	Jumping, hopping, skipping, twisting bounding
Coordination	In small-sided games	Shows ability to twist and turn, change direction keeping movements with body under control
Speed	Multi directional	Player can move at speed in different directions with and without the ball

Basic Motor Skills	Moving in quick, controlled, smooth movements	Player shows that they can move at speed with controlled smooth movements
Perception/Awareness	In small sided games	Players are aware of what is happening around them in a game situation
Social/Emotional			1	2	3	4
Cooperation	With Coach and teammates	Player is able to cooperate at a basic level with other players and coaches
Communication	Verbal communication	Player is able to communicate with team mates and offer encouragement to others
Problem-solving	Working out mistakes	Player displays a basic understanding of working through their mistakes and can correct them
Decision-making	Game decisions	Has the ability to work out simple game-related decisions.
Respect/Discipline	In training and games	Player shows respect for other players' equipment and space.

Technical			1	2	3	4
Dribbling	Right foot and left foot under pressure	Player is now able to dribble at an opponent and can show a change of speed and direction with their head up
Shooting	Right foot and left foot	Player is able to use both feet over short distances. Shots are accurate and on target
Running	Right foot and left Foot	Player can run with the ball using both feet in different directions and are able to vary their speed with head/eyes up
Turning	Right foot and left foot	Using both feet, Player is able to perform turns with the inside and outside of their feet with their head/eyes up
Receiving	Right foot and left foot. Introduce thigh and chest	Player can control the ball with the inside and outside of both feet, their thigh and chest.
Ball Control	Ball mastery	Player can handle the ball in reduced spaces with team mate and opponents in close vicinity
Shielding the ball	Using body to protect the ball	Player shows the ability to protect the ball under pressure and can use their body to protect them self's and the ball
1v1 Defending	Defending as an individual	Player understands and can shows correct defending technique in 1v1 situations
Tactical			1	2	3	4
Possession	Individual and team's ability to retain the ball	Player understands angles and distances of support and that player mobility will allow team possession to take place.
Combination Play	Player awareness to combination opportunities	Player can show and understand when a wall pass, take over, set up etc. are available to play.
Switching play	Taking up correct positions to allow the switch to take place	Understands and has the ability to pass the ball from one side of the field to the other, quickly.
Pressing	Understanding when to press	Player shows an understanding of pressing and closing down the ball carrier
Retreat	Understanding when to retreat and to where	Understands Individually and as a group how to get between the ball and the goal.

Additional Comments by the Technical Director:

Recommendation/Decision for the player:

Signature of Academy Technical Director _____

Date _____

Name and signature of parent _____

Date _____

Name and signature of player _____

Date _____

Signature Ontario Soccer Technical Director _____

Date _____